NO. 1
MELBOURNE BEACH TOWN CHARTER
AMENDMENT
SECTION 6.06, Town Charter

The Town Charter requires that no rezoning of land shall be effective unless the rezoning is approved by Town voters. Earlier this year, the Legislature passed a state law that prohibits the Town from having a referendum on any rezoning. This Charter amendment makes the Charter consistent with state law by providing that a referendum may only be required if the Town Commission certifies that holding a referendum is not prohibited by state law.
